

Biography of Gerald Macaluso, Principal,
DeSales High School

Gerald Macaluso was born on June 10, 1951 in Lockport, New York. His parents, Roy and Marie (85 years of age and 87 years of age and still counting), still reside in Lockport. His brother, Roy, is a retired Social Studies teacher from the Lockport City School District where he was also the Varsity Basketball Coach for fifteen (15) years. His sister, Cindy, resides in North Tonawanda, New York with her husband and three children. The children attend the Starpoint Central School District.

He and wife, Diane, reside in Seneca Falls. He has two grown children. Jeremy, a clinical Social Worker for Ontario County as well as a Staff Sergeant in the Air Force Reserve and Jeff, a Pharmacist for the V.A. Hospital in Buffalo, New York. Jeremy received his M.S.W. from Nazareth College and Jeff received his Pharmacy degree from St. Johns University.

Mr. Macaluso graduated from Lockport Senior High School in 1969. He attended Virginia Military Institute for two years prior to transferring to SUNY College at Buffalo. He graduated in 1973 with a B.S. in Secondary Education, Social Studies. He obtained his Masters in Public Administration from the Maxwell School of Administration and Policy in 1976. He subsequently obtained his Certificate of Advanced Study (CAS) in Educational Administration and Supervision from SUNY College at Oswego in 1978.

He taught 8th Grade American History in the Three-Village Central School District in Setauket, New York and 10th Grade World History in the Liverpool Central School District. His administration career has included being an Assistant High School Principal in the Mexico Central School District, a Middle School and High School Principal in the Seneca Falls Central School District, a Middle School Principal in the Union Springs Central School District, an Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction in the Auburn Enlarged City School District, and as a Superintendent for the Seneca Falls Central School District.

He truly enjoys being at DeSales High School for two reasons . . . (1) the student body and staff and (2) an opportunity to openly practice his faith on a daily basis and without any barriers, to openly thank God for the various gifts associated with life.
